The vampire and her best friend

13 0 1

Chapter 1 by Bailey Rhodus

It was a dark night. the clouds that hing over the town gave me a chill. The moon crimson red. Looked like the man in the moon went mad. The town was still as if someone paused a movie. There in the heart of the town stood a girl. She was not just any girl no she was special. I'll tell you about that later. here this girl was her blonde hair draped over her shoulder, her bright blue eyes, and her fang like teeth. She stood there looking at her next victim. Who is that you may ask. There is no one else out there you may say. There is you can't see him he is hidden from the naked eye. Only she can see hem standing in am alleyway looking for something. This is her routine she goes out at night to find some lonely boy to feed off of him. If you are out at this time you will find her with blood on her lips and fangs from when she fed off of the pour unfortunate boy who dared to say hi. no one ever expects this pretty girl to be so vicious. It might be because if how her parents treat her or it could be because she is a vampire. You weren't expecting that were you. This sweet little innocent girl a cold blooded killer. Let's see what she is doing now.

Oh my look at the she found her victim. He went to go say hello to what he though was a normal girl once he is vulnerable that's when she strikes. She first starts by laying him down. When he starts to stir that's when she moves in. She puts her fangs into his neck. Right where the vein is. After she's finished she takes him to her. Other vampires know that he is her's to feed off of. All the other vampires stay away from him. Nothing on her otherwise she will kill them. No one ever denies her except in person. That person happens to be her best friend. He is sweet and kind. He keeps her out of a lot of trouble too. What he doesn't know is
